

Mag. Dr.iur. Eva Maria Tschnerer, dipl. (Strasbourg)

Born April 26th 1984 in Graz, Austria
Austrian citizen

eva.tschnerer@uni-graz.at www.zivilrecht.uni-graz.at/de/institut/tschnerer/

Institute for Civil Law, Foreign and Private International Law
University of Graz
Universitätsstraße 15/D4
8010 Graz, Austria
Tel.: +43 650 3918093

Main Areas of Research

Consumer law and behavioral economics, European private law, International private law, Succession, European law (fundamental freedoms, the right to strike, posting of workers abroad).

Work Experience

April 2012 – Present

Assistant Professor
University of Graz

Researching and writing my professorial dissertation ('Consumer Law and Behavioral Economics'). Teaching courses on succession law and how to solve complex cases in civil law matters. I am also a member of the faculty's curriculum committee on international studies.

October 2011-March 2012

Clerkships at various Austrian courts

Drafting judgments and procedural orders in numerous civil and criminal cases, along with generally assisting with hearings.

September 2011

Finished Doctorate in Law
University of Graz

March 2011- August 2011

Scientific Assistant at the Austrian Supreme Court

Helping to prepare decisions through in-depth analysis of the legal issues raised before the civil senates of the court. General assistance during court sessions.

October 2009

Research stay at the ZAAR, Munich, Germany

Further research along with the presentation of the preliminary results of my doctoral dissertation at the Zentrum für Arbeitsbeziehungen und Arbeitsrecht headed by Prof. Abbo Junker.

December 2008 - October 2009

Freelancer at JusGuide

Summarised decisions of the Austrian Supreme Court for a weekly newsletter for lawyers.

February 2007 – February 2011

Research and Teaching Assistant

University of Graz

Researching and writing my doctoral thesis, teaching scientific writing and the methodology of solving simple cases in civil law. Alongside these roles I also regularly presented summaries of the content of international journals on European and International Private Law at regular meetings of the chair of Prof. Brigitta Lurger.

Higher Education

September 2008 – September 2011

Doctorate in Law, University of Graz

September 2005 - May 2007

Master of Political Sciences, Institut d'Etudes Politiques, Robert Schuman University Strasbourg, France

September 2002 – September 2006

Master of Law, University of Graz

Prizes

I was awarded a number of prizes for my doctoral thesis:

Award of Excellence 2011. Awarded by Austrian Federal Minister for Science and Research.

Dr. Maria Schaumayer Preis 2011

Best of Rewi Award at the Faculty of Law, University of Graz. Awarded to the 15 best diploma and doctoral theses each academic year.

Dr. Alois Mock-Förderpreis 2012

Leopold Kunschak-Wissenschaftspreis 2012

Josef Krainer Förderpreis 2012

Other prizes:

Best of Rewi-Award of the Faculty of Law, University of Graz. Awarded to the top 15 students of the graduation ranking in the academic year 2006/07.

Memberships

Member of the Advisory Board of the Legal Symposium at the European Forum Alpbach.

Graz, April 24th 2013